

MODULE B

WASTING FOOD IN AMERICA

- 1) What do we learn from lines 1-4?
 - ii) What Stuart's book is about.
- 2) What is the problem that Stuart writes about?
 - i) People waste a lot of food.
- 3) What did people tell Stuart?

ANSWER: They don't use all the food that they buy.
- 4) According to Stuart, what is the problem with Americans' shopping habits?
 - iii) They buy food in big packages.
- 5) What will happen in the future if Americans waste even more food than today?

ANSWER: The results will be a disaster to the environment.
- 6) According to Stuart, how can people waste less food? Give ONE way.

ANSWER: To go shopping with a list// To buy food in small packages// To use leftover food instead of throwing it away.
- 7) What does Susan Parker like about the first part of the book? Give ONE thing.

ANSWER: Stuart writes with humor// Stuart tells stories about his own experience// It is very interesting// It is well written.
- 8) Susan Parker recommends this book because she thinks Americans need (-).
 - ii) to know how serious food waste is.