

MODULE C (3+4 POINTS)

DAYDREAMING

1)What does the writer explain in lines 1-3?

iii)What daydreaming is.

2)Daydreaming may have a negative effect if we –

i)do it many times during the day.

3)Driving is mentioned in lines 4-8 as an example of a situation-ii)when we must focus on what we are doing.

4)Why was Dr.Berger surprised by what she discovered?

Because before her study she thought that the brain is 'asleep' while we are daydreaming.

5)How is our brain activity while daydreaming different from our brain activity while doing routine work?

When we daydream parts of the brain are more active.

6)In her second study, Dr.Berger discovered that people who daydream find solutions to problems. What did she discover in her first study that explains this?

Answer: Parts of the brain that are responsible for problem solving are very active when our thoughts wander

7)How does Dr.Berger explain the effect daydreaming has on creativity?

Answer: Daydreaming allows the brain to make new associations between ideas.

8)How did some companies benefit from Dr.Berger's studies?

i)The companies were more successful.

9)In line 20 the writer says : "during that time". What is the time he is talking about?

Answer: The break from work during the day to let employees daydream //The time of daydreaming..

10)In lines 21-27 the writer gives examples of how daydreaming can help us-

iii)change our behavior

vi)do difficult things.