

MODULE F

1. From lines 1-6 we can understand that McCourt told his students they should tell their life stories //write about their life experience.
2. What do we learn about McCourt from lines 7-14?
 - iii) His teaching affected his writing career.
3. In the quotation in lines 11-13 , McCourt explains why he told (his students) stories instead of teaching .
4. In lines 15-22, the writer provides information about McCourt's
 - ii) personal background.
 - v) professional training.
5. What do McCourt's books Angela's Ashes and Teacher Man have in common ? They both describe his personal experience//They both relate to his personal life.
6. Give ONE thing we learn about Angela's Ashes from lines 26-33.
We learn why the book was praised by critics//became a best seller overnight .
7. According to lines 26-33 McCourt's former students
 - iv) agreed with the critics' opinion of him.